

Your week in Sint Maarten.

A relaxed, balanced seven days — beaches and sunsets, one great boat day, a couple of island-hops, and the food the island is famous for. Everything here is an easy drive from the apartment.

PERIDOT ROAD 9C · SIMPSON BAY · 18°01'54.1"N 63°05'33.7"W

Seven days, the easy way.

A suggested rhythm, not a fixed schedule — swap any day for a slower one. Buccaneer Beach is three minutes downhill; the airport is twelve minutes away when it's time to leave.

Day 1 · Sunday

Land & settle in

Collect the rental car, stock up at the Simpson Bay supermarkets, then walk three minutes down to Buccaneer Beach for a first swim. Sunset and dinner on the terrace as the bay lights up.

◇ Ease in — you have all week.

Day 2 · Monday

Maho, Mullet & the planes

Morning at Mullet Bay, the island's best swimming beach. Late afternoon at Maho to watch the jets skim the sand, then drinks at the Sunset Bar as the day cools off.

◇ Check the arrivals board at Maho for the big-jet landings.

Day 3 · Tuesday

Catamaran & snorkel day

The big one: a full-day catamaran from Simpson Bay out to Anguilla's cays — Prickly Pear or Shoal Bay — with snorkeling, lunch, and an open bar. Back in time for a quiet evening.

◇ Book a day or two ahead; bring reef-safe sunscreen.

Day 4 · Wednesday

Grand Case & the French side

Cross to the French side: Friar's Bay or Happy Bay in the day, then Grand Case — the island's culinary capital — for dinner. Pick a fine-dining table or graze the lolos (open-air grills) on the waterfront.

◇ In season, Grand Case hosts an evening street market.

Day 5 · Thursday

St. Barths day trip

Catch the fast ferry from Pelican Marina (a few minutes away) to Gustavia, St. Barths — about 45 minutes each way. Wander the harbour, lunch in town, and a swim at Shell Beach before the afternoon return.

◇ The "Edge" ferry leaves early; confirm the day's schedule when you book.

Day 6 · Friday

Philipsburg & Loterie Farm

Morning along Philipsburg's Front Street and Great Bay boardwalk for shopping and the Old Street cafés. Afternoon in the cool of Loterie Farm — zip-lines and treetop trails, or just the spring-fed pools and a long lunch.

◇ Cruise-ship days make Philipsburg busy; go early.

Day 7 · Saturday

Slow morning, last swim

No alarm. Coffee on the terrace, a final swim at Buccaneer or Kim Sha, and a sunset drink to close the week. Pack light — you'll be back.

◇ SXM airport is twelve minutes away when it's time to go.

GOOD TO KNOW

Practical essentials.

Getting around

A rental car is the easiest way to explore both the Dutch and French sides. Driving is on the right; no border formalities between sides.

Two cats in residence

Gadsby & Noisette live at the apartment and come and go. Cat-friendly guests only, please.

Day trips

Anguilla by ferry (~25 min) and St. Barths by fast ferry (~45 min) both make easy single-day outings.

Money

Dutch side uses US dollars; French side prefers euros, though dollars are widely accepted. Cards work most places.

Beaches near you

Buccaneer Beach (3-min walk), Kim Sha and Mullet Bay a short drive — calm water and easy parking.

Sun & sea

Reef-safe sunscreen, a hat, and water for boat days. Afternoons are breezier on the Atlantic-facing beaches.

RESERVE YOUR STAY

Book on Airbnb: airbnb.com/rooms/1695572888154608737

Exchange on HomeExchange: homeexchange.com/homes/view/3202554

We're glad to tailor the week to your group — just ask when you book.